ST. JOSEPH IN DARKNESS

STORM BROKE NATURAL GAS PIPE AND CITY ALMOST HELPLESS.

NO BREAKFASTS THIS MORNING

Western Missouri and Eastern Kansas Also Suffer From Heavy Rains and Winds of Last Night—Trains Delayed.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 15.—The supply of natural gas in St. Joseph was cut off last night by a break in the pipe line at Weston, Mo., which brings fuel from Southern Kansas. The city this morning was without breakfast, natural gas being used for fuel in practically all the homes of the city.

Gas is also used for fuel at the electric lighting plant and the streets were in darkness. Gas is used in the typesetting machines in the various newspapers and they were issued with difficulty today.

The rain last night was the heaviest for years. Four bridges are out near the city, and the street car lines are demoralized.

Leavenworth, Kas., July 15.—The waterspout last night caused damage within a radius of fifteen miles of Leavenworth that is estimated at half a million dollars. Nearly six inches of rain fell.

At Iatan, Mo., hundred of head of live stock were drowned and hundreds of acres of wheat washed into the Missouri river.

All railroads report their tracks out and traffic demoralized.

The Missouri river is rising rapidly and people living in the bottoms are taking their stock and belongings to the hills.

The Missouri river at Kansas City and vicinity has passed the flood stage and more or less damage in the wholesale district in the west and east bottoms here may be expected within the next twenty-four hours, according to weather Observer Connor.

The stage at 11 o'clock was six inches above the flood stage, which is twenty-one feet. This is the highest stage attained since the great flood in the spring of 1904. However, no great damage is expected and nothing approaching that wrought three years ago is feared.

Topeka, Kas., July 15.—Along the Union Pacific railroad, twenty miles west of here, in the vicinity of Russellville and Kingsville, at an early hour today a cloudburst washed away the bridges on upper Soldier and Half-Way creeks and weakened the railroad bed. All trains from the west were delayed several hours. Over six inches of rain fell.

A Missouri Pacific train was partially derailed near Effingham, Kas., and both the engineer and baggage-man were hurt.

Kansas City, Mo., July 15.—The western half of Missouri was drenched by a terrific storm last night. Reports received today indicate that there was much damage to corn fields, bridges and culverts in the low lands, in many instances the structures being washed out, delaying trains. Four and one-half inches of rain fell at some points.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

Round Trip Fare to Beaman for Adults Is 25 Cents.

The Sunday school of the Broadway Presbyterian church will have their picnic tomorrow, as originally planned. An extra coach has been promised by the Katy to carry the picnicers to Beaman, near which the picnic will be held in the beautiful pasture belonging to Dr. Henry Evans.

The members and friends of the Sunday school and church will meet at the Katy depot, where the train leaves at 8:50. The round trip will be 24 cents for adults and 12 cents for children, and tickets will be provided any not feeling able to purchase them.

Let all the members and friends of the Sunday school and church come with their basket dinners and enjoy a royal good day together.

Hand Badly Swollen.

N. A. Grammar, one of the proprietors of Grammar's Palace of Sweets, is carrying his right hand in a bandage, the result of a swelling arising from injuring the hand a week ago. Dr. E. A. Wood is attending the patient.

Meeting of Local Barkeepers.

Frank DeBolt and Jess White were initiated into the local Bartenders' union at Sunday afternoon's meeting, after which a social session was held and "red soda water" was served.

A Lawn Social.

The ladies of the M. E. church, South, will serve ice cream and cake on the lawn at the residence of Mrs. Geo. B. Stotts Tuesday evening, June 16, from 4 to 9 p. m.; 15 cents.

PUTTING UP THE TENTS

GETTING READY FOR THE OPENING OF THE CHAUTAUQUA ON THURSDAY.

HON. W. J. BRYAN SPEAKS 3 P. M.

He Comes on a Special M. K. & T. Train at 2:30 O'clock From Boonville—The Outlook for Large Attendance Is Splendid.

Charles C. Casey, who is looking after all of the arrangements pertaining to the opening of the Chautauqua at Liberty park at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, is this afternoon engaged in erecting a number of small tents in front of the grand stand, but just how many will be required it not known definitely at this writing.

At Emporia, Kas., last week, Mr. Casey put up more than fifty of these tents, but a larger number ought to be occupied here.

The advance sale of tickets has been very satisfactory, and if the weather is propitious a large attendance is assured, especially on several of what are known as the "big days."

Hon. W. J. Bryan will have the honor of opening the fourteen days' session of the Chautauqua. He will arrive here at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon on a special M. K. & T. train from Boonville and will proceed direct to the park and at once begin speaking.

Unquestionably he will be one of the big cards at the meeting, despite the fact that he has on several occasions spoken to the people of Pettis and surrounding counties in Sedalia.

The Business Men's association has had the assistance of the Ministers' Alliance and also of many representative citizens in advertising the Chautauqua, and the belief is that if the elements are propitious the meeting will be a financial as well as a literary success.

Mr. Casey, the local manager, desires to return thanks through the Democrat-Sentinel to the directors of the state fair board for the use of seats for the Liberty park assemblage.

FOURTEEN WERE BAPTISED

Baptists Will Continue the Tent Meeting This Week.

Although the weather was unfavorable yesterday was a great day to the First Baptist church. In the morning, in addition to the regular Sunday-school and preaching service, the Lord's Supper was observed.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock the church met in business session and inaugurated plans for still larger work.

At 4 o'clock Pastor Campbell baptised fourteen candidates, in the presence of a large audience.

A good young people's service was held at the tent at 7 o'clock. Judge Louis Hoffman leading it. Owing to the rain there was no preaching at 8.

The tent meeting will continue through the week, with one service a day, at 8 in the evening. Many have been blessed since the meeting began.

On Tuesday evening a thank offering will be taken for the purpose of buying the seats now in use.

HE HAD TAKEN ON A JAG

MEMBER OF THE OHIO PRISON BOARD TUMBLED FROM A CARRIAGE.

HIS RESIGNATION IS DEMANDED

Conveyed Within the Penitentiary Walls, He Revived, and Scampered for a Michigan Train.

Columbus, Ohio, July 15.—Thompson Burton, of Youngstown, a member of the board of managers of the Ohio penitentiary, has been politely requested by Governor Harris to tender his resignation the same to take effect upon its receipt. In his letter to Burton the governor states no reason further than to tell the colonel that he can best understand the cause for his action.

What the governor did is the result of what happened at the prison last Thursday, when Burton, in alighting from a carriage upon his arrival from a trip up street, fell to the sidewalk and had to be assisted into the institution by Steward Miller and another official. It was said at the time that Burton was not feeling well. This was confirmed by Warden Gould and others.

According to the story given to the governor, Burton secured one of the prison carriages and proceeded on a tour of the city. Time passed, and he did not return. Warden Gould, being in need of the conveyance, waited until his patience had become exhausted, and then sent a messenger in search of the missing member of the board, with instructions to tell the driver, who was a trusty prisoner, to return immediately with the rig.

It was "meeting day" and the entrance to the prison was filled with visitors present for the purpose mostly of assisting prisoners who were applicants for parole. The carriage arrived, and when Burton emerged he created the scene depicted.

After being partly carried to quarters in the prison he was placed on a couch and revived shortly. Then he was hustled to a train and placed aboard, his destination being Detroit, Mich., his summer home.

It seems that when Burton concluded to leave the city he changed his clothes. When the conductor came for his fare he discovered that his money was in the raiment left behind, and the good-natured railroad employee paid the price out of his own pocket.

Burton was appointed to the position by Governor Herrick. He would have served until 1909, but for the present trouble, which is not the first, according to Governor Harris and prison officials. They say that at a meeting one year ago he was similarly indisposed.

The resignation of Burton now places the board back where it was before the term of Cole Gillard, a republican, expired, and Edward Crayton, Newark, a democrat, was selected to the vacancy by the late Governor Patterson.

Burton was a democrat, but his successor will be a republican, making the board change its political complexion. Burton voted with the democrats, Crayton and McEldin Dun, to oust Warden Gould and elect in his place Price Russell, of Wooster. This was before Governor Patterson died.

He also voted with the republicans to rescind the resolution adopted cutting off the official head of Warden Gould which left Russell out in the cold.

Governor Harris stated that he did not have the slightest idea whom he would appoint to the vacancy, but the new man would be a republican. Already there is some talk that Cole Gillard will attempt to be reinstated for "vindication," if nothing else.

A Free-for-All Fight.

A free-for-all fight occurred at J. F. M. Counce's residence in the "bad lands" early this morning, in which a North Sedalia business man was quite badly injured. Myrtle Howard and Elizabeth Simpson, negroes, were arrested for complicity in the affray, but will not be arraigned until other participants are arrested.

Licensed to Wed.

A marriage license was issued today to "Jack" Miller, of Lamonte.

and Ethel May Craig, of Green Ridge.

Predicts a Wet Month.

James B. Mockbee, the South Montau avenue grocer, who is something of a weather prophet, according to Al Baumgartner's way of thinking, predicts considerable rain for the remainder of the month, as the new moon is a wet one, he says. Chautauqua begins Thursday and continues until July 31, hence it is to be hoped that Mr. Mockbee is "off" in his prediction.

Sold His Wheat for 79 Cents.

Former County Treasurer T. T. Veits came down from Hughesville Sunday and returned Monday. He had 95 acres of wheat that he thinks will average 20 bushels to the acre, and which he sold before it was threshed for 79 cents a bushel. The recent rain makes certain a good corn crop, Mr. Veits says.

IS AGAIN ON THE STAND

ORCHARD, THE SELF CONFESSED WHOLESALE MURDERER, TESTIFIES AGAIN.

CONTRADICT EVIDENCE OF DEFENSE

On Cross Examination He Admitted That an Uncle Had Been Insane and That He Had Killed Himself.

Boise, Idaho, July 15.—At the opening of court this morning Judge Wood announced that he had decided to sustain the objection of the defense to the admittance in evidence of the records of the state asylum, showing the commitment to that institution of John D. Elliott, one of the witnesses for the defense, who testified to a conversation he had with Orchard in November, 1906.

William Dewey, the witness who startled the court room Saturday by confessing to participation in the Coeur d'Alene riots and the attack on the Bunker Hill and Sullivan Mill mines, was recalled to further identify W. P. Davis as the man who handed out the guns and ammunition of the day the mob started for the mill.

Orchard, the famous witness, was then recalled by the state in rebuttal. Orchard was in the chair but twenty minutes. The questions of the state were few, and in less than five minutes Orchard was turned over to the defense for cross examination.

Attorney Richardson, in the cross examination brought out a new feature when he asked if Orchard's maternal grandfather was not insane on the subject of the confession of imaginary crimes.

Orchard admitted that his uncle, Peter McKinney, who lived in Northumberland county, Ontario, had hanged himself while insane.

A CLASS OF TWENTY

Took the First Degree in the Knights of Columbus Sunday.

A class of twenty candidates, nearly all of whom reside at Tipton, had the first degree of the Knights of Columbus conferred on them by Sedalia council No. 831, at the hall over the Democrat-Sentinel office Sunday afternoon. The initiatory work began promptly at 2 o'clock and was concluded two hours later.

Following the conferring of the degree, Lecturer Pat Shea was given the floor and presided over a social session, during which interesting talks were made by Rev. Fr. McNamara, Judge D. E. Kennedy and W. G. Lynch.

A quartette, under the direction of John Solon, rendered a musical selection, followed by vocal selections by J. M. Dohel and Andy Knipp, being followed in turn by a short but interesting talks from a visiting Knight.

A Fifty-Dollar Blaze.

A $50 fire originated at the home of S. L. Baker, 235 South Vermont avenue, at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, but the loss is covered by insurance. One of Mr. Baker's daughters was burning sulphur in her apartments at the house, when a can of gasoline caught fire.

In escaping from the room Miss Baker kicked over the can, igniting the carpet, bed, lace curtains and some wearing apparel.

WIFE MURDER CHARGED

WEALTHY MAN OF CLINTON, ILL., ARRESTED AT SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA.

SPOUSE WAS FOUND DEAD IN BED

Six Weeks Later F. H. Magill Married Again, and Now He and His Bride Are Both Behind the Bars.

Springfield, Ill., July 15.—Requisition papers for the return to Clinton, Ill., of Frederick H. Magill and wife, wanted there on a charge of murder, were issued Sunday by Governor Deeney. The couple are under arrest at San Diego, Cal., accused of the murder of Magill's first wife.

State's Attorney Arthur F. Miller and Sheriff H. A. Campbell, of De Witt county, arrived here Sunday, and, following an interview with the governor, the requisition papers on the governor of California were issued. Both Miller and Campbell will make the trip to San Diego to bring the accused couple back to Clinton.

Miller said that the evidence on which the couple were arrested was obtained largely through conflicting statements made by them. Magill's present wife was Miss Fay Graham. He married her less than a month after the death of the wife whom he is accused of poisoning.

According to State Attorney Miller, after his wife's death Magill said that the woman had taken a small dose of strychnine, shortly before her death, to help a headache. He also told that she had awakened in the night and asked for a bottle of beer, which he procured for her.

It is the theory of the state that if the woman was poisoned, as is charged, the drug was given to her in the beer. It is expected that the autopsy will reveal this fact when the remains are exhumed and examined, which will be done at once.

Magill and his present wife were accompanied to California by the former's 13-year-old daughter, who, however, is not implicated.

The girl is being cared for at a hotel at San Diego, and probably will accompany her father to Illinois.

Following the issuance of the requisition papers, Sheriff Campbell and State Attorney Miller departed for St. Louis, on their way to California.

First Mrs. Magill Found Dead.

Clinton, Ill., July 15.—Mrs. Pet Gaudy Magill, in connection with whose death her husband, Frederick H. Magill, was arrested in San Diego, Cal., Saturday night, was found dead in a spare room at the Magill home-stand in Clinton on the morning of May 31.

Beside the bed was a bowl containing chloroform. Coroner Jones held an inquest, the verdict being suicide.

Previous to her death Mrs. Magill had been riding with her husband and daughter and appeared to be in good spirits. Her buoyant disposition and cheerfulness was commented upon. There was nothing noticed in her conduct that betokened despondency or worry.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Magill was Miss Pet Gaudy. She was 38 years old at the time of her death. She was married to Fred Magill in 1889. One child was born, Marguerite, now 17 years old.

Mrs. Magill was prominent in social and religious circles and was a member of the Presbyterian church of Clinton.

When word was received in Clinton of the marriage in Denver, on Friday, July 5, of Magill to Miss Fay Graham, 22 years old, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Graham, residents of Clinton, an investigation into the cause of Mrs. Pet Magill's death was started.

Before the death of the first Mrs. Magill, Miss Graham was a frequent visitor at the Magill homestead. She was especially intimate with Miss Magill, and the two were inseparable. Miss Graham was always looked upon as one of the family.

Miss Graham's parents were astonished by the marriage. Her father said: "I did not know a thing about this affair. It was as much of a shock to me as to anyone else. Fay left home Saturday, June 29, ostensibly to visit her uncle, Dr. Graham, in Kenosha, Wis. She intimated that she would also visit the family of Ira Taylor in Chicago."

May Fight: Extradition.

San Diego, Cal., July 15.—Although in a statement F. H. Magill emphatically declared that he was certain of acquittal in his home town and that he was anxious to be taken back immediately to face his accusers, it develops that his lawyers here have determined to make a bitter fight against extradition.

Attorneys Eugene Daney and Judge J. Wade McDonald, for the defense, say they will carry the case to the superior court on an application for a writ of habeas corpus.

Albert Nasher, Fay Graham's uncle, who is in Los Angeles, offered bail in any amount for both.

The defense has the state at a disadvantage here, as both District At-

THE PRINCE IS MISSING

REPORT WAS MADE BY FORMER VAUDEVILLE ACTRESS, MISS WEST.

THEY WERE SECRETLY MARRIED

This Is the Claim of the Bride, Who Thinks That Her Husband From Abroad Has Met With Foul Play, Most Likely.

New York, July 15.—Prince Victor, of Thurn and Taxis, nephew of the late Empress of Austria, friend of the Vanderbilts, Goellets Gerys and other prominent New York families, was reported as missing by a beautiful young woman, who asserts that she was secretly married to the Prince last October.

Mrs. Taxis, as she says the prince told her to call herself until they returned to Austria and she introduced her as the princess, lives in handsome apartments in No. 480 Park avenue.

She declared that the prince suddenly left her about six weeks ago after a slight quarrel and she fears that some misfortune may have befallen him, as she has no tidings from him.

To society the report of the marriage of the prince will come as a decided surprise, for the matchmakers in fashionable circles have several times believed that the prince would find a wife amid their ranks and another addition be made to the list of American millionaire princesses.

But the princess of Park avenue says that she is poor. She was Miss Josephine West and lived in Jacksonville, Fla., until she went upon the vaudeville stage.

She says that at first she did not wish to marry the prince, but he went upon his knees to her time and time again, and finally threatened to shoot himself unless she would marry him.

THE TRIP WAS GIVEN UP

Roads Were Too Heavy for the Sedalia Automobilists.

W. H. Cloney and family, W. J. Crouch and family and Miss Nannie Scawright, who left here last Thursday morning in two automobiles for a trip to Kansas City, expecting to return Saturday morning, returned via the Missouri Pacific yesterday, the heavy rain causing the party to abandon their machines at Pleasant Hill. The automobiles are now at Pleasant Hill, but will be brought here this week.

Pitkin Stanley, who went to Kansas City Saturday, accompanied the auto party to Pleasant Hill and came home with them on the train Sunday.

EXPLOSION ON BATTLE SHIP

While at Target Practice Powder Blew Up, Injuring 17.

Washington, July 15.—An explosion occurred this morning on the battle ship Georgia while the vessel was at target practice in Cape Cod bay, Mass., and seventeen persons were injured, among them being Lieut. Goodrich and Midshipmen Cruse and Goldthwaite. Cruse is seriously hurt.

WANT STRIKE SETTLED

PEOPLE OF MOBERLY ARE GROWING WEARY OF PROLONGED STRUGGLE.

24 STRIKE-BREAKERS ARRIVED

The Strike of Tinnere at the Wabash Shops Is Still on, and There Is No Telling When It Will Be Settled.

The Moberly Democrat of Saturday says it is reliably informed by an employee of the Wabash railroad shops who was in the yards that morning at 7 o'clock that there are now twenty-four strike breakers on the company's grounds. He said he did not know whether all of them were at work or not, but he did know that some of them were hammering away in the tin shop. The strike has now been on three weeks and no effort has been made to settle it.

The machinists, boiler-makers and blacksmiths have refused to work on the engines that the non-union men have been working on.

Four detectives are stationed in the yards and no one is allowed near the shops where the non-union men are working, so it is impossible to say just exactly what is going on there.

The detectives will not allow anyone except the men who are actually at work in any of the other shops. The strike situation now seems worse than it has been heretofore. The strikers are standing their ground well.

They are asking for an increase in wages, but are trying to get it in a quiet, peaceable way. Not one of them has ever raised a hand against any of the strike-breakers, nor do they expect to. If they win their cause they will do so in a gentlemanly way. They are pursuing the best way to win what they ask for.

The company is also making a strong fight to win. They have made an effort to win the strike by filling the vacancies with non-union men and this means that the affair will be a fight to the end.

The citizens of Moberly are anxious to see the strike settled satisfactorily to both parties, and it may be done, but it now looks as if the squabble was getting worse and may result in a general strike of all the shop men on the system. Let us hope that the strikers and officials will get together on an early date and adjust their differences.

THE SIEBE SALOON LICENSE

Final Action Has Been Deferred Until August 6th

The judges of the Pettis county court met in adjourned session today to consider whether or not to grant a dramshop license to Will Siebe, son of John W. Siebe, to operate a saloon at the corner of Main and Kentucky avenue. Action was deferred on motion of the applicants until August 6, and since Mr. Siebe's license expires on the 20th inst., he will be compelled to close his place of business until a new license is issued.

Recently Mr. Siebe, through Attorney W. G. Lynch, filed application for a saloon license.

Attorney Lee Montgomery, representing the Law Enforcement league, contended that the application was not signed by a majority of assessed tax paying citizens owning property in the block where Mr. Siebe desires to operate a saloon.

After a lengthy discussion, the matter was deferred until today, but last Saturday Attorney Lynch filed a new application for his client, with the alleged required number of signatures of property owners.

According to the law, the application must be filed at least ten days before the term of court, hence the matter goes over.

Baptism of An Infant.

Mr. and Mrs. William Otis, of Ottumwa, Ia., who are spending several weeks with Mr. Otis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Otis, in this city, had their infant daughter baptized by Rev. Fr. Neiberger Sunday at Sacred Heart church, the name being Marjorie Call. Mr. Emil Zoernig and Miss Margaret Corbett acted as sponsors.

A PAGE OF HISTORY.

Thirty-nine years ago on the Fourth of July a democratic national convention met in Tammany hall, New York.
Horatio Seymour, former governor of New York, was made permanent chairman, Mr. Seymour having refor president or to allow his name to be presented to the convention.

George H. Pendleton, of Ohio, was the leading candidate, but he was unable to command the necessary two-thirds vote. After a long and tedious deadlock, General McCook, on the announcement of the twenty-first ballot, arose and in behalf of the Ohio
delegation demanded the nomination of Horatio Seymour.

When the applause had died away
and order was restored, Mr. Seymour advanced to the front of the platform
and said:

"Gentlemen of the Convention: The motion just made by the gentleman from Ohio excites in my mind the most mingled emotions. I have no terms in which to express my grate-tude for the magnanimity of his state and for the generosity of this convention. I have no terms in which to tell of my regret that my name has been brought before this convention.
God knows that my life and all that I value most in life I would give for the good of my country, which I believe to be identified with our own party.

"I do not stand here as a man
proud of his opinions or obstinate in his purposes, but upon a question of duty and honor I must stand upon my own convictions against the world. Gentlemen, when I said here
at an early day that honor forbade
my accepting a nomination by this convention, I meant it. When in the course of my intercourse with those of my own delegation and my friends
I said to them that I could not be a candidate, I meant it. And now permit me here to say that I know,
after all that has taken place, I could not receive the nomination without placing not only myself but the great democratic party in a false position.

"Gentlemen, I thank you, and may God bless you for your kindness to me, but your candidate I cannot be."

Notwithstanding this emphatic refusal on the basis of duty and honor, the convention proceeded to nominate Horatio Seymour by acclamation. And Mr. Seymour—accepted the nomination. Incidentally, it might also be said that he carried the state of New York.

NAMING THE FARM.

A law passed by the Missouri legislature encourages the naming of farms and protects the use of the name adopted. It provides that upon the payment of a fee of $1 to the clerk of the county court the farmer
in any county may secure a certificate setting forth the name of the owner, and that when such name is properly registered it can not be used as a designation for any other farm in that county.

As the Omaha Bee well says, there is more than a sentimental value to this legislation. The products of a dairy, orchard or stables of a farm
may command a commercial premium
after a reputation has been established. A distinctive name for an estate is much to be preferred than the present system of designation by section, township and range numbers.

"The Maple Grove" farm is more attractive and more intelligible than
"the east half of the southeast quarter," etc. The southern farmer has followed this plan for years, but in the north, while the farmer gives names to the roads, to his horses,
dogs, cattle, chickens and children,
the farm has no individuality, no distinctive designation.

Why not name the farms?

FATHERS AND SONS.

It was James A. Garfield who said that a college was a boy on one end of a log and Mark Hopkins on the other. This famous definition is said to contain all the essentials of an institution of learning. Mark Hopkins was the president of Williams college
when the earnest young Jim Garfield expressed his devotion for his great tutor in the phrase which has since been repeated with inspiration to thousands of teachers and pupils.

Years passed and the great educator, Mark Hopkins, passed to his reward, leaving to the world the imperishable results of his great work,
and a son of his own name with something of the same ability.

James A. Garfield was stricken by the assassin's hand, but the martyred president's memory lingers and his loyalty to Williams is one of his alma mater's dearest recollections. He, too, left a son with something of the steadfast purposes of the illustrious father.

The junior Mr. Hopkins later became president of the institution
which his father had made famous.
Now, however, the years are tinging
his hairs with gray and he feels it
his duty to leave the confining duties
of the executive of an American college. Strangely enough, he is to be succeeded by Harry Garfield, the son of his father's greatest pupil.

Williams will shift from Hopkins to Garfield, and will continue to prosper
on the other end of the log.

HE MET MISS BIRDSEYE IN PARIS

On His Return His Ship Struck an

Resulted—Points of Inter-

Rev. W. T. McClure, pastor of Centenary church, arrived home Friday
after a tour which included many historic and interesting points in the old world, says Saturday's Nevada Mail. Rev. McClure had a most delightful trip, and fortunately escaped
the unpleasant seasickness which attacks so many travelers.

During his long stay he met but four people he knew, these being:
Dr. Lee and wife, of Atlanta, Ga.;
Dr. Keener, of New Orleans, and Miss Mary Birdseye, of Nevada. Dr.
McClure met Miss Birdseye at Paris,
and says she is the best guide in the world, and that he never met a friend
in his life that was more courteous
and considerate. Dr. McClure says Miss Birdseye knows Paris as well
as Nevada, and that she speaks
French fluently.

While Rev. McClure was journeying over seas and lands he complimented the Mail and its readers by writing some exceedingly interesting letters describing his travels and those things of special interest to us all.

Dr. McClure left Nevada April 22, going to St. Louis, where he remained one day and then departed for New York city. Here he spent two days and sailed for Naples April 27.
His sea voyage was of fifteen days
duration and on the way he stopped
at Ponta Bellgrade, which is located upon a group of islands two thousand miles east of New York.

Bellgrade is a beautiful city of 30,000 inhabitants and its tropical gardens are of special interest. From Bellgrade the good ship sailed for Gibraltar, the greatest sea fort in the world. Including the soldiers stationed in the fort there are between twelve and fifteen thousand people living in the city of Gibraltar.

From this famous fort he sailed to Algiers, Africa, remaining there ten hours, and then renewed his journey to Naples. Rev. McClure spent three days at Naples and visited also the places adjacent thereto, which are of special interest, including Pompeii
and the world-famous Vesuvius. Dr.
McClure says this famous volcano was very peaceful and he climbed to the top and looked down into the crater.

From Naples he went to Rome the Mecca of all foreign travelers and spent nine days. He visited the vatican, but failed to see the Pope. He visited the Roman Forum, St. Peter's,
the Nine Hills, St. Paul's, the Grove of Shelley and many other places of historic interest.

On May 25 he left Rome for Palestine and landed May 29, remaining at Beirut two days and then went to Haifa, which is located at the foot of Mt. Carmel. He went to the top of the mountain and visited Elijah's cave and the cave where the prophets lived and also visited the Catholic monastery. He then took a carriage to Nazareth, a distance of twenty-four miles. The road is a splendid macadamized thoroughfare and the twenty-four miles were traveled within five hours.

The night was spent there and in the morning he traveled to Tiberia,
also twenty-four miles, and arrived
at the city on the shores of the sea
of Galilee after four hours' travel.
A day and one night were devoted to Tiberia and then Rev. McClure returned to Nazareth, where he spent Sunday.

Monday morning the party on horseback started for Jerusalem,
one hundred miles distant by the route followed. On the way to the Holy City many stops were made in order to visit places of interest made sacred centuries ago.

Rev. McClure remained in Palestine eight days, visiting the city of Jerusalem, Bethlehem and other adjacent places. He then traveled by rail to Jafa, remained there one day,
and departed by steamer for Port Said, where he stayed a half day, and left for Cairo, Egypt, visited the famous Pyramids and departed for Alexandria, from which place he boarded a ship for Italy, going to the beautiful city of Venice. From Venice he went to Milan and then to the beautiful white-tipped Alps in Switzerland, visiting Lake Geneva. The next point he went to was Paris,
where he devoted five days of his time and where he had the good for-

Dr. McClure, after seeing Paris, crossed the English channel and traveled to London and there spent eight days seeing all places of interest to an American traveler. He visited Stratford on Avon, the home of Shakespeare, and also went to the great Oxford university. On July 3 Rev. McClure, aboard the Kronprinzess Wilhelm, sailed from South
Hampton for home.

The ship is a six-day flyer and should have arrived at New York
July 9, but encountered an iceberg
and was delayed twenty-four hours.
Fortunately no material damage to the ship resulted, but the passengers
were thrown into a state of panic.

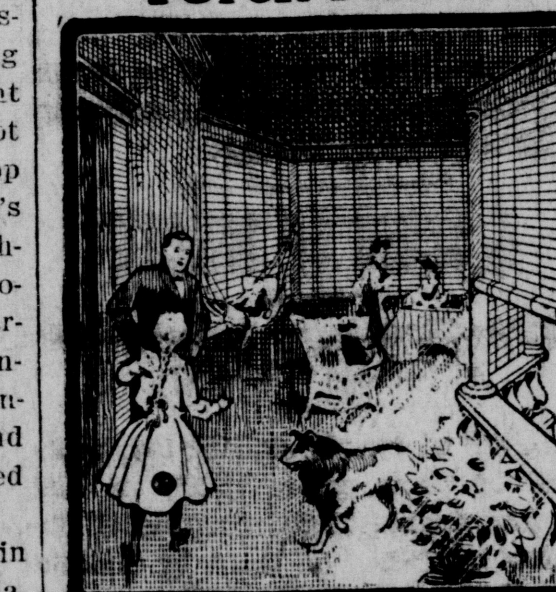

After landing safely at New York,
Rev. McClure journeyed direct to St.
Louis and then home. On Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock Rev. Mc-Clure was on the ship and Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock he was in St.
Louis, which demonstrates the fact that the means of rapid transportation are now enjoyed in this country.

The Mail is glad to know that Rev.
McClure had a splendid and safe
journey and with a host of friends
warmly welcomes him home.

AN OLD TALE IS RETOLD

BARNUM WAS RIGHT WHEN HE REMARKED, "PEOPLE LIKE TO BE HUMBUGGED."

THEN, TOO, THIS IS STORY OF BUGS

Clever Fakir Made Big Money Recently Over at Alton, Ill., and Was Smooth Enough to Get Away With It.

Some people are so lucky and resourceful that they can turn anything,
even a calamity to account. No matter from what dizzy heights they are dropped, no matter into what abyss-
mal depths of hard times they fall,
they always manage to land upon
their financial feet.

Such a man recently visited Alton,
Ill. He is not there now, however.
He has departed for parts unknown.
Mr. William Grensbacher, of Alton, who is spending his summer vacation
visiting relatives in Springfield tells the tale which hangs thereby, as follows, in the Springfield Leader.

This resourceful man, who must surely have been a New Englander,
had the nerve to make money out of a calamity that has spelled ruin to half the gardeners and farmers in the southwest this summer—the plague of potato bugs. He sold a potato bug sure cure, and got rich at
it, but strange to say, he never covered the same territory twice.

The peddler carried his wares in little packages, wrapped securely in paper. They were square packages, and looked like small boxes of something. They were.

"Follow the directions on the inside of each package, and you'll kill every potato bug in the patch," said
the fakir. "This cure is guaranteed to kill every bug, if the directions are followed, and I'll refund the money cheerfully to anyone who tries the remedy according to directions and fails of the guaranteed results."

The "cure" sold rapidly at two bits
per. for Alton was overrun with potato bugs, and all the gardeners and near-gardeners bought the killer as fast as the vender could hand out the packages.

The directions were on the inside of the package, and therefore the buyers could not read them until they had taken their killer home and unwrapped it.

The package consisted of two blocks of wood. The first was labeled "No. 1" and the second "No.
2." The directions said: "Catch your potato bug, and place him on
No. 1. Then strike him with No. 2, and he will be instantly killed. Treat
all bugs in this manner, carefully following directions, and every potato
bug in the patch will be destroyed."

The man was arrested but the police soon liberated him because there was no violation of the law, even the Alton law, in his transaction.

There is now plenty of fuel for next winter in Alton, in the shape
of pine blocks, and the potato bugs
are still flourishing unmolested.

WHAT'S KILLING TREES?

Grass Also Perishing in Midst of Unusually Wet Season.

The citizens of West Coates street
and West End Place are considerably concerned over the mysterious deaths
of several stately shade trees which have stood the test of time in wet
and dry seasons for many years, says
the Moberly Democrat.

Three fine box elders in front of the residences of Arthur Curran and Pat McDonald, on West Coates street,
have recently shown signs of decay
and at this time are practically dead,
their once handsome green foliage
having turned yellow, shriveled and dried.

Also a stately elm just across the street in the yard of Mrs. Buchanan is mysteriously dying. In this locality the grass, recently a luxurious
green, is drying up and fading away.

A PETTIS COUNTY STORY

IT IS A REMINISCENCE OF THE
RECENT WAR OF THE REBELLION.

CAPT. H. K. THOMPSON, BEAMAN, MO

Figured in an Exciting Event in the Trouble Between the States—
Thirty-Two Chautauquas
in Missouri.

The resurrection or rediscovery of an old copy of the Missouri State Journal of July 2, 1861, published in St. Louis, and the republication of an extract from it in the Sedalia Democrat-Sentinel has brought to light a bit of history out of the past from an original source, writes Walter Williams, of the Columbia Herald, in Sunday's St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The old State Journal had a number of articles relative to the war, and among them this head, "A Game Young Man. What Is His Name?" The article, referring to an incident which took place just after the first battle of Boonville between General Nathaniel Lyons and the Union troops, who had come onto the Missouri state troops, said:

"Among the young men taken prisoners by General Lyons at Boonville were three who wore the camp Jackson uniform, all of whom were charged with having been in that encampment, and therefore guilty of violating their parole of honor. None of them, however, were guilty. While it is said a number of the prisoners taken claimed they had been duped by former Governor Jackson, there was one from Saline, or Howard, a young Kentuckian, wearing the camp Jackson uniform, who boldly told the sergeant who arrested him that he was a secessionist out and out; that he believed the south had been trampled upon and outraged; that Governor Jackson had not fooled him; that he intended to fight for the south, and opening his breast and striking it, remarked: 'Here is as good a heart as ever beat in the breast of mortal man,' and they might shoot him if they wished to, for he had no apologies to make. The sergeant told him they cared nothing for his secession views, but he must not take up arms against the government, for it was a great crime.

"Who was this young man? We would like to know his name. We hear it is Thomson. Is it so?" When the attention of Charles J. Walden, now of Boonville, and editor of the Advertiser, was called to the paper he identified the party whose name history had not recorded. He was Captain H. K. Thomson, now of Beaman, a well known fruit grower. Captain Thomson was then but a boy and had enlisted to fight for the Confederacy.

"I was an eyewitness," said Mr. Walden, "to the capture of Thomson and the other two men, one of whom was Elijah Simms, of Howard county. The name of the other party I do not now remember, if I ever knew it. Simms, Lindsey, Carson, of Howard county, the later a nephew of the late famous Kit Carson, and I were together coming up the river from the battlefield. At the old fair grounds we fell in with Thomson and other parties.

"Thomson was mounted on a fine gray horse and had no gun. I was carrying two guns, one of which I had picked up where it had been thrown away by some one in the retreat. Thomson suggested that I let him have one of them and that we go up the road where a company of soldiers had stopped, apparently to rest. They called to us several times to come up. Some of the party suggested they were our friends and if we didn't go to them they might shoot us.

"We replied that we were not going to anyone who would shoot us, and we made a bee line down the hill for the river, with a shower of bullets whizzing about us. Thomson and Simms and the other party, thinking they were our own troops, went to them and were taken prisoners. Carson and myself, then nothing but boys, made the race of our lives and never stopped running till we got aboard the ferry boat, which was just pulling out for the Howard side of the river with a few of the retreating Confederates. The federal cavalry was then in town and General Lyon's transports were just below town and tried to stop the ferry boats from crossing the river, but their shells did not reach us.

Thomson, Brant, Pierce and James A. Walden, my brother, the two latter members of the Richmond Grays company, raised by John B. Clark, Jr., at Fayette, were accused of being camp Jackson's paroled prisoners and were sentenced to be shot. Through the influence of Weston H. Birch, Clark H. Green and other influential Union men who knew the Howard county boys were not at camp Jackson, had them paroled with some thirty other members of the same company who were captured near the place where the skirmish took place on that Monday morning, June 17, 1861."

The chautauqua was never so popular in Missouri. Just now in this mid-summer month of July there are thirty-two chautauquas or summer assemblies in progress in the state. They cover the entire state, from Carthage on the south to Trenton and Maryville on the north. One organizer has equipped fourteen chautauquas and manages these as a department store. The present year chautauqua discusses present day problems more than previous year assemblies. The emphasis is placed upon practical, social and economic conditions in the addresses from the chautauqua platform.

Bryan, La Follette, Hadley, Folk, Hoch are among the star attractions on the Missouri chautauqua platform this year. All discuss politics, not so much from the standpoint of partisanship as from the viewpoint of non-partisan consideration. Nevertheless, the general drift is toward the framing of party platforms and the decision as to party candidates. The present day chautauqua in Missouri has become an adjunct to a good government campaign.

The usual proportion of women at the assemblies is also noticeable. Either the men are too busy cutting wheat or selling goods, or for some other reason, they are not present at the chautauquas in nearly so large numbers as the women. Some chautauqua days look like a mid-week prayer meeting on a large scale. The number of chautauquas in Missouri is nearly 50 per cent greater than last year and their effectiveness is also greater.

An outcome of the chautauqua movement will be the establishment by the united presbyterian forces of the state at some central point of a summer assembly modeled upon the lines of the Winona Lake, Ind., enterprise. The location has not yet been determined, though this year's conference will be held at Perle Springs, near Warrensburg, in Johnson county. Versailles and other points are under consideration. In addition to the summer assembly, or Bible conference, it is planned to establish an educational plant which will be open and in operation the entire year.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspaper is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

BATES COUNTY POOR HOUSE

Board Recommends That New Building Be Erected.

A board of visitors, after inspecting the Bates county poor house, has made a report showing a deplorable condition at the poor farm, but one which the members frankly admit cannot be wholly remedied under the conditions as now exist, says the Clinton Democrat.

The old building is wholly inadequate for the use, absolutely devoid of sanitary arrangement, and the walls of the old wooden structure infested with vermin that only the torch would thoroughly eradicate.

The board's recommendation, that a new, modern, fire proof structure be erected, is a good one and will meet with the hearty support of every humanitarian. Bates county is wealthy and her people progressive, patriotic and willing to assume the burdens that belong to them.

LEAVE PRISON JULY 19

KANSAS CITY MAN, REFORMED
WHILE FUGITIVE, SOON TO BE FREE.

IT IS SAID TWO JOBS AWAIT HIM

Wife He Won After Escape Will Greet Him at Big Gate—History of a Truly Remarkable Case.

Leavenworth, Kan., July 15.—William January, also known as Charles W. Anderson, the United States penitentiary inmate, for whose pardon 37,000 Missourians petitioned, will leave the prison Friday, July 19, after having been a prisoner since April 20, 1907, on which day he was brought here from Kansas City, Mo., to serve out the unexpired portion of his sentence of five years.

January, who is prisoner No. 308, was sentenced to Leavenworth for breaking into a general store, in which was a post office. He was convicted at Stillwater, Okla., Dec. 10, 1895, and his full term would have expired in 1899. October 9, 1898 he and another convict named Axton escaped from the prison, then located at Fort Leavenworth. In April of this year Barnes, another ex-convict, "snatched" to the Kansas City police and caused January to be recaptured.

During the time January was out of prison he was known by the name of Anderson and lived a model life, so far as known. Popular indignation condemned Barnes for the part he took in the affair and he was practically forced to leave Kansas City.

Pardon Pretty Freely Signed.
Many newspapers urged that the president be petitioned to pardon January. Members of the Missouri house of representatives, the Kansas City Board of Trade, Chamber of Commerce, labor organizations, members and others signed the request, and the president referred it to the department of justice, recommending that the sentence be commuted immediately.

Attorney General Bonaparte, not wishing to encourage prisoners to escape, recommended as a compromise that the sentence be commuted to three months from the date of his re-arrest and that January be then pardoned. This was approved.

What January will do when he leaves the prison has not yet been decided by him or his wife. It is said that a Kansas City merchant wishes to start him in the tailoring business; or that he may sell coffees and teas, at which he was successful after he escaped from the prison. He has not intimidated his desires, but he will reside in Kansas City, the city which came to his aid and saved him from a prison sentence that would have expired June 21, 1909, is fully decided.

Wife Going to Meet Him.
At 7 a. m. next Friday January will be free to leave the prison and face the world. His wife who has stood by him so nobly, though she did not know his record before their marriage, will come here with her child, and accompanied by friends, they will return to Kansas City. Report has it that a reception will be given to him there, but the nature of this has not yet been made known.

If January desires he may leave the prison in citizens' clothing, made in the prison tailor shop. Every discharged prisoner is given a suit of clothes, good underwear, socks, shirt, collar, necktie, hat and shoes; in fact, he is completely outfitted, and given transportation to the place from which he was sentenced. In this case it would be to Stillwater, Okla., but January only asks it to Kansas City. It is said January's friend, a Kansas City tailor, who first circulated a petition for his release, will send a suit of clothing for him to wear from the prison.

Didn't Want a Parole.

When January was returned to the prison the newspapers published many stories relative to his excellent behavior, and Warden R. W. McClaghry, after a talk with the prisoner, made the following recommendation in the prisoner's record sheet: "In view of the commendable life led by January, No. 308, while he was an escaped prisoner, a full account of which I have just had from him, I feel warranted in directing that he be relieved of his striped suit and clad in the gray prison garb."

All "escapes" are given striped suits on their return, while well behaved prisoners wear the gray and paroles the chalk blue. A well behaved convict has the privilege of asking a parole, which permits him to sleep in a dormitory instead of a cell room, and eat at a special table. January was given a parole application blank by Deputy Warden Lemcn. It has certain questions to be

January returned the blank, stating that he did not care to sign it.
Chillicothe His Home.

Had he done so he would have been given work on the prison farm outside the walls, but he preferred remaining in the laundry, where he was employed sorting clothing.

January's home is in Chillicothe, Mo., where his brother and aged mother reside. The brother recently called upon him. The prisoner pretended not to know him. The brother asked January why he had not come home or sent word where he was, but the prisoner only hung his head as if in shame.

William January is the prisoner's right name, and the probabilities are that he will again assume it on his release, instead of that of Charles William Anderson. He has no reason now to cloud his identity.

"I was down with chronic rheumatism since last fall," writes M. F. Toorney, No. 52 Carbon street, Scranton, Pa., "I tried all kinds of medicine, but did not receive any benefit. I saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised in the 'Scranton Times,' got a half dollar bottle of it, but as everything else had failed, I had avery little faith in it. I rubbed myself thoroughly with it and went to bed, and to my surprise felt better the next morning. The pains seemed to go away. I kept on using it, and now have had no pains for the past six weeks. Angry Union Men Attempted to Storm Little Rock Hotel.

Little Rock, Ark., July 15.—A riot was narrowly averted by the police Saturday night. Two non-union copper-smiths arrived in Little Rock several days ago to take the place of strikers in the Iron Mountain shops. The men, realizing their danger, purchased railroad tickets Saturday, intending to leave for their home in St. Louis.

While in a barber shop they were informed that about 100 union copper-smiths and tinners were on the outside waiting for them.

A squad of police was dispatched to the scene and escorted the two non-union men to a hotel. The crowd made several attempts to get the men, but were driven off by the police. After reaching the hotel the union men attempted to force entrance through the office, but were denied admittance.

The street was densely crowded and it required considerable effort on the part of the police to disperse the crowd, which was accomplished at 10 o'clock.

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.

PROVISIONS OF NEW PRIMARY ELECTION LAW IN MISSOURI.

STATE OFFICE TO THE CONSTABLE

Has This Anything to Do With There Being So Many Candidates for Sheriff in Pettis County Next Year?

The new primary election law has these provisions:

"Provided, that for county officers a declaration by candidate, in which shall be stated the applicant's full name and residence, the office for which he proposes as a candidate, and the party upon whose ticket he is to be a candidate, shall be accepted and filed by the proper official in lieu of all other nomination papers as required in this act. Said declaration to be filed in the same time and manner as is provided in this act.

"Each signer of a nomination paper shall sign by one such paper for the same office, and shall declare that he intends to support the candidate named therein; he shall add his residence, with the street and number, if any, and the date of signing.

"Such nomination papers shall be signed:

"1. If for a state office, by at least 1 per cent of the voters of the party of such candidate, in at least six of the counties in the state and in the aggregate not less than 1 per cent, nor more than 10 per cent of the total vote of his party in the state.

"2. If for a representative in congress, by at least 2 per cent of the voters of his party, in at least one-tenth of the election precincts in each of at least one-half of the counties of his congressional district, and in the aggregate not less than 2 per cent nor more than 10 per cent of the total vote of his party in such district.

"3. If for an office representing less than a congressional district in area, by at least 3 per cent of the total party vote in at least one-sixth of the election precincts of such district, and in the aggregate not less than 3 per cent, nor more than 10 per cent of the total vote of his party in such district.

"Provided, that the office of representative to the general assembly of Missouri shall be regarded as a county office under the provisions of this act."

The St. Louis Children's Free Hospital Training School.

This institution desires to announce that it has opened a training school for the instruction of young women in the care of sick children. Lectures will be delivered by the staff on all medical and surgical diseases of children from birth up to 14 years of age, including hygiene, preparation of infants' foods, dress, etc., during a course of two years. Correspondence invited from those desiring to take up this work. Candidates must be from 18 to 35 years of age. Full particulars can be obtained by addressing the superintendent of the training school at the St. Louis Children's free Hospital, No. 400 South Jefferson avenue.

Laxative Waters—Sulpho Saline is nature's key to unlock the secret organs of the system. Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

THE RAILROADS WON THERE

Alabama Law Against Removal of Suits to Federal Courts Invalid.

Montgomery, Ala., July 15.—Judge Jones, of the United States circuit court, has ruled that the new state law, under which removal of a suit by a railroad company is invalid and in violation of the constitutions of both state and nation.

It abrogates, the court holds, the contract made between the corporation and the state and also is in violation of the state constitutional provision that corporations shall have the same rights to sue and be sued as individuals.

The court also gave reasons for granting temporary injunctions to restrain operation of state rate and regulation laws, his object being to allow the railroads opportunity to prove their allegations that the laws are confiscatory.

Missouri has a law similar to the Alabama law on the subjects of railroads removing cases from the state to the federal courts. It has not been tested in this state, but is likely to be before fall.

The rate regulation laws in Alabama include a two-cent fare law, but the fact that in that state the people will pay the old rates without trying the new while the law is in litigation merely means that the attorney general of Missouri put up a more vigorous fight than the corresponding officials of Alabama. It helps to emphasize the usefulness of public officials who will fight.

HATPIN IN HER HEART

By the Bride Who Told Her Father "I'll Beat You to It."

Evansville, Ind., July 15.—Mrs. Gertrude Eccles stabbed herself in the heart with a hatpin and is dying. She was recently married to A. O. Eccles, a fresco painter of Nashville, Tenn., and her father, James Martin, it is said, has never forgiven her for it. It is said he was standing on the platform of the Illinois Central railroad at St. Wendel, Ind., and that he said to her:

"I will kill you right here."

The girl, pulling a pin from her hat, said:

"I will beat you to it."

And then she stabbed herself in the heart. It is said the father knocked her down after she had stabbed herself, and then fled.

DESTROY THE CAUSE.

You Cannot Cure Dandruff Without Destroying the Cause of It.

Many people wash their scalps Saturday night or Sunday to try to keep the dandruff down for a week, but on Monday night the scalp has begun to itch, and Tuesday morning will find a good supply of dandruff when the hair is brushed. There is but one real scientific way of curing dandruff, and that is to kill the germ that causes it and falling hair and finally baldness. There is only one preparation that will destroy the germ and that is Newbro's Herpicide. It is an entirely new discovery and the only hair preparation that is based on the new scientific principle. In addition Herpicide is a very refreshing hair dressing for regular toilet use. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes, 50c and $1. Fishing Vessel Reports That Russian Man of War Took Her Papers.

San Francisco, July 15.—The American barkentine, S. N. Castle, arrived here yesterday from the cod fishing grounds off the coast of Siberia, and reported that she was overhauled by the Russian gun boat Mandjur, her ship's papers taken, and warning given her to stay thirty miles from shore under threat of being confiscated and the officers and crew taken to Petrovsk in irons. The captain will take the matter up with the state department in Washington.

Notice to Rock and Gravel Road Contractors

Sealed proposals will be received until 4 o'clock p. m., Tuesday, July 16, 1907, for the construction of the following rock and gravel roads, to be built according to specifications on file in the office of the secretary of the Six-Mile Road board, in the Citizens' National bank building, or of the superintendent:

Ingram avenue, beginning at the present end of rock road, about Twenty-Second street to Broadway, about three-fourths mile, 16 feet wide

All bids must be made upon blank forms to be obtained of the secretary at his office at Citizens' National bank.

Each bid to be accompanied by a certified check for fifty dollars ($50) payable to the Six-Mile Road board, said check to be returned to the bidder unless he fails to execute the contract, should it be awarded to him. The check should not be enclosed in sealed envelope with the proposal, but should be delivered to secretary, who will receipt for the same.

Bids will be received for both rock and gravel.

The road board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.—W. H. Powell, Secretary.

Swears He and Wife Are Innocent.
San Diego, Cal., July 15.—"I swear by Almighty God that I and my wife are innocent. Time will prove it and exonerate both of us. We are the victims of a fiendish plot laid by the relatives of my first wife. They have been circulating false reports against us ever since Pet's awful death. They are trying to hound us to death."

So said Frederick H. Magill, the wealthy Clinton, Ill. banker, on being lodged in the county jail here after his arrest last night at the Hotel Robinson by Chief of Police Moulton.

Steamer Ran Aground.
New York, July 15.—Long Island sound steamer Shinnecock, from Greensport, L. I. for this city, with passengers, ran ashore on the northeast end of Hart Island during the dense fog early today. All the passengers were landed in safety.

FOURTH TRIAL FOR MURDER

Court Gave St. Joseph Man Another Chance for Life.

Jefferson City, July 15.—Cassius M. Brown, of St. Joseph, will get a fourth trial on the charge of murder in the first degree.

The state supreme court reversed the judgment of first degree murder against him two weeks ago and sent his case back for a new trial because the trial court adjourned before passing upon the motion for a new trial, and Saturday the supreme court overruled the motion of the attorney general for a rehearing of the case here on the former conviction.

Brown has been convicted twice and a hung jury was the result of one trial. He is charged with the murder of Nancy A. Gay, his landlady.

SEVERAL SEDALIA CASES

Were Passed Upon By the State Supreme Court.

In division No. 1 of the Missouri supreme court the following motions were disposed of Saturday:

Sedalia ex. rel. Taylor vs. Smith; motion rehearing overruled; opinion on overruling motion by Graves, J.

Sedalia ex. rel. Taylor vs. Smith; motion to set aside judgment and transfer Kansas City court of appeals overruled.

Sedalia ex. rel. Taylor vs. Doherty; motion to set aside judgment and transfer to Kansas City court of appeals, same order as other case.

Sedalia ex. rel. Taylor vs. Dugan; motion to set aside judgment and transfer Kansas City court of appeals; same order.

Ferguson vs. Gentry; motion for rehearing overruled.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT

Spring Unwinds in Mouth and Man Loses His Teeth.

Jeffersonville, Ind., July 15.—James Daily, of Jeffersonville, is mourning the loss of several teeth and is living on liquid food temporarily, as the result of the antics of a curtain roller spring.

Daily has but one arm and sometimes uses his teeth to assist him. A curtain roller spring became disarranged, and Daily decided to fix it. Facing the spring end of the roller in his mouth, Daily twisted the other end. Suddenly there was a whirling of machinery like an alarm clock going off, and Daily imagined his head was flying to pieces.

The spring had been wound so tight it would not stand the pressure, and reversed its motion, tearing some of Daily's teeth out and injuring others.

A RIGHT TO CARRY ARMS

The Decision of a Court in Regard to Strike Breakers.

Columbus, Ohio, July 15.—Judge Charles M. Rogers, of the Common Pleas Court, has ruled that strikers who had been threatened with violence had the right to carry concealed weapons.

The decision was rendered in the cases of Harry Richardson, Earl Wilkerson and John W. Wolf, employed at a foundry during a strike.

They carried revolvers and were fined $25 and costs each. The cases are remanded for a new trial on the grounds that they were justified in defending themselves.

PERRINE NOW A "MILLER"

Cantillon Sends a "Nig" to "Brother Mike" at Minneapolis.

Minneapolis Minn., July 15.—"Nig" Perrine, the Blues' former second baseman, has joined the Minneapolis club.

Perrine's coming here is the result of a hurry-up deal with the Washington club and was unexpected.

Manager Cantillon says that the little infielder was secured to play in place of Oyler, who, he says, needs a rest.

Pitcher Edmundson has also been secured from Washington.

WILL PAY UP AND MOVE OUT

Anheuser-Busch Company to Quit Business in Kansas.

Topeka, Kas., July 15.—The Anheuser-Busch Brewing company has notified the receivers appointed by the supreme court to conserve the brewery properties in the state during the pending of the ouster suits that it will pay up all the fees and costs assessed against it at once, and move out of the state.

The Anheuser-Busch company owns about $100,000 worth of properties in Kansas. The supreme court recently allowed each of the receivers $1,250 each to pay for their work. Added to this the costs will run up to the total levy on the Anheuser-Busch company about $4,000.

This practically breaks the backbone of any attempted resistance to the order of the supreme court in ousting eleven brewing companies from Kansas.

The Val Blatz company is the only other one that has "come in" so far. It expressed willingness at once to dispose of its property and leave. But the Anheuser-Busch company has led in the defense all along. Its attorneys were the only ones to appear at the first hearing.

NEW PASSENGER CHIEF

MISSOURI PACIFIC CREATES THE OFFICE OF TRAFFIC MANAGER.

C. L. STONE IS TO FILL THE OFFICE

He Comes From the Louisville and Nashville Road and Stands Unusually High in Western Railway Circles.

The position of passenger traffic manager for the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain system, with headquarters in St. Louis, has been created, says Monday's St. Louis Globe-Democrat, and it will take effect August 1. Vice President C. S. Clarke is expected at headquarters from New York on Wednesday next, when the official announcement will be made.

For some years the traffic department organization has provided for a freight traffic manager, with headquarters in St. Louis, but there has been no passenger traffic manager, and to make the organization uniform and complete the new office is established. General Passenger Agent C. L. Stone, of the Louisville and Nashville, has been selected by the Gould lines' management for the helm of the passenger department, and it is understood there will be no other changes.

General Passenger Agent H. C. Townsend, who has been at the head of the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain passenger department for twenty-five years and was previously with the Wabash, will remain in his position, but will be relieved of much of the detail work attached to such an important office, and he will spend more of his time in moving over the system and supervising the agencies.

Mr. Townsend's health has been very indifferent of late and he has been recommended to get away from office confinement. He is one of the oldest and most highly esteemed passenger officials in the country and he is held in the warmest regard by the Goulds and all the officials of the Gould system. In railroad and business circles generally he has held the foremost seat of popularity.

Mr. Stone, who will occupy the new position, is a strong passenger traffic man, making his record with the Chicago and Eastern Illinois as general passenger agent. Shortly after the death of C. P. Atmore at Louisville, he was offered and he accepted the position of general passenger agent of the Louisville, and he is in close touch with the passenger chiefs of all the leading lines in the Southeast and the Southwest. He is also popular with the St. Louis passenger fraternity.

Assistant General Passenger Agent B. Howard Payne, of the Missouri Pacific, will, of course, remain under the new regime. The immense mileage of the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain has called for a heavy volume of work at the St. Louis general offices and Mr. Payne is recognized in the passenger world as a master of detail, with an extraordinary capacity for office labor. He has represented the Gould system at many important traffic conferences, and he is secretary of the St. Louis Association of General Passenger Agents.

WHILE SON LOOKS ON

Jealous Admirer Shoots Woman, Then Attempts Suicide.

St. Louis, July 15.—Just as 10-year-old William Ryan stepped through the door leading to the basement of his home Saturday noon John Costello shot and seriously wounded the boy's mother, Mary Ryan, while she was preparing dinner.

Then, without a word to the boy, he arose from the chair in which he had been sitting and turned the revolver on himself, shooting in the right temple, but without serious results, as the bullet flattened against his skull.

Both Costello and his victim were removed to the city hospital. Mrs. Ryan will probably recover. Costello, who has a wife and child in St. Paul, Kas., was insanely jealous, it is alleged, of Mrs. Ryan, with whom he formerly boarded. Several weeks ago he threatened her life and she preferred charges against him for disturbing the peace.

Bad sick headaches, biliousness or constipation are quickly relieved by DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Small pill, sure pill, safe pill—prompt and pleasant in action. Sold by Arlington pharmacy.

Fine Rain That Was Needed.

A fine rain, that was general in this section, fell Sunday morning, and was followed by another down-pour Sunday night, and also more rain Monday morning, so that the farmers are now in high glee. Threshing may be delayed a little by the drenching the earth received, but the corn crop will be greatly benefited, and is Missouri "corn is king, you know."

REGARDING RAILROADS

GIVE UP PASSES OR RETIRE TO PRIVATE LIFE IN LONE STAR STATE.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

One of the most drastic of the state anti-pass laws, that of Texas, became effective last Wednesday.

It provides a fine of $5,000 for the corporation whose executive or other official issues a pass to anyone not entitled thereto under the law, and a fine of from $500 to $2,000 and confinement in the penitentiary from six months to two years, at the discretion of the jury, for the official violating the law.

Persons knowing that they are not entitled to such courtesies accepting the same or even making application therefor are also amenable under the new law for a fine of from $100 to $1,000.

The new law also gives railroad
employees whose business compels
them to travel, which they do on free
transportation, but who are members of councils or identified in any way with municipal governments of the various cities, boroughs, towns or townships in Texas the choice of retiring from official life or giving up their passes.

Katy Trainmen Meet Official.
The general grievance committee
of the Brotherhood of Railway Train-men for the Missouri, Kansas and Texas system is at the St. James hotel and this morning will begin a series of conferences with Assistant General Manager Bethard and General
Superintendents T. S. McDowell
and E. M. Alvord, for the purpose of adjusting the wage scale for yardmen
to meet the new conditions which have arisen since the old scale was adopted in 1902, says the Globe-Democrat of this morning.

The adjustment is made necessary
by the 10 per cent increase in pay recently granted the men. Some changes in working conditions may also be incorporated to meet new difficulties which have recently arisen.
The members of the committee stated
yesterday that they anticipated no trouble in coming to an early agreement with the officials.

The committees consist of: Chairman, Joseph Williams, Hillsboro,
Texas; secretary, Charles S. Moore,
Sedalia; T. J. Peters, Dallas, Tex.;
Denison, Tex.; H. F.
Kan.; F. A. Rawlins,
Tex.; Robt.
son, Texas; John

Williams, Hannibal, and J. Ames, New Franklin.

Double Track for the Katy.

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway has commenced the work of making a double track from Parsons to Muskogee, I. T., known as the Cherokee division, a division of 117
miles. The distance will be shortened to 100 miles, and a number of towns will be marooned and some will be put closer.

At Oswego the track will be a half mile closer to the town, and at Wasson, Welch and Blue Jacket it will be moved some distance from the present stations.

It is estimated that the time to be consumed in carrying out these plans will be three years, and the amount to be expended $2,000,000, part to be used in track expenses in Oklahoma
and Kansas City as well.

The Parsons division between Parsons and Kansas City will be straightened and shortened, with the grades along the Neosho river raised.
The Osage division, running into Oklahoma, will be treated to the same work.

He Is Going to Mexico.

James B. Black, a Missouri Pacific
civil engineer, and as clever a young gentleman as one will meet in a day's travel, Sunday received a telegram,
offering him a fine position on construction work on a railway now being built in the state of Sonora, Mexico, and has decided to accept it.

Mr. Black is now straightening curves and performing other work incident thereto in the vicinity of El-ston, east of here, but he will quit the company's employe at the end of the present week, and will then pay a week's visit at his old home in Indiana, after which he departs for his new field of labor, carrying with him
the best wishes of every person whose acquaintance he has made since coming to Sedalia.

Mr. Black spent the Sabbath with friends here and departed for Elston
this morning.

New Passenger Depot.

Effective July 13, the new passenger depot of the Missouri Pacific at Lexington was ready for use, and all passenger trains will do their work
there in future.

A bulletin announcing the fact
states that it is not necessary for train Nos. 621, 622, 623 and 624 to go to the old freight depot. Hereafter, trains will get their orders at the new depot.

Will Soon Be Transferred.

Harry C. Reeder, Missouri Pacific
civil engineer, who, with Frank M.
Plake, is straightening curves and the like in the neighborhood of New Haven, returned there last night,
after having spent the Sabbath here.

Harry expects to complete his labors in the New Haven territory

within a fortnight, when it is likely that he and Mr. Plake will be transferred to the Iron Mountain road for work in Arkansas.

Young Reeder was a student at the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy, N. Y., while Pitkin Stanley was there, and it is possible he will resume his studies there this winter, as his father, Congressman W. A. Reeder, of the Sixth Kansas district, is very anxious to have him do so.

Roadbed Washed Out.

Three hundred feet of roadbed under the Lexington branch track one-fourth mile this side of Waterloo was washed away by high water early this morning. Traffic was delayed for several hours.

morning on business.

J. P. Rodeman, traveling freight agent for the Missouri Pacific, went to Pleasant Hill today.

Superintendent A. J. Alexander, of the Missouri Pacific, went to Kansas
City last night on business.

Frank Helsley, employed by the Pacific Express company, went to Kansas City this afternoon to visit.

J. R. Quinn, a Katy engineer from New Franklin, and daughter, Miss Ella, are visiting friends here today.

Col. A. C. Miner, traveling passenger agent for the Katy, went to Pleasant Hill via the Missouri Pacific
today.

Katy engines Nos. 68 and 69 were taken through here yesterday to Parsons to be set up in the company's shops.

George Webster, a street car conductor, is laying off, and Roy Walker
is on the former's run on the East Sedalia line.

Miss Nell Harris, stenographer for Division Engineer Morrison, of the Missouri Pacific, spent Sunday at Warrensburg.

Katy train No. 3 was run in two sections today, the first being an engine with caboose to Parsons to return with stock.

Effective yesterday, the night telegraph offices of the Missouri Pacific
at Dresden, Knob Noster and Strasburg are closed.

Missouri Pacific train No. 2, due here at 1:10 p. m., arrived forty minutes late today, caused by waiting at Kansas City for connections.

Tom Robb, who has been running on the Warsaw branch for the Pacific Express company, is again driving
one of the company's wagons.

A small washout on the Lexington
branch, just west of Myrick, delayed Jack Lafferty's train one hour and twenty-five minutes this morning.

Conductor Carpenter, of the Light and Traction company, is working on the Ohio avenue line today for Dick Carver, who is laying off, fishing.

L. E. Mahan, general live stock agent for the C. & A. at Kansas City,
spent Sunday with his family here
and went to Higbee today to take the C. & A.

"Bob" Wiley, engineer on the Illinois division of the Iron Mountain railway, who was called here by the illness of his son, returned to Bixby, Ill., today.

C. F. Gibbs, agent for the C., B.
& Q. at Coatsburg, Ill., and wife, who have been visiting the former's sister, Mrs. W. J. Whiprecht, returned home today.

A trolley jumped the wire at the switch between Broadway and Ninth streets last night, tearing loose several span wires. The damage was repaired today.

Albert Rankin, traveling auditor
for the Katy, went to Boonville today, and C. S. Taylor, route agent for the American Express company, went to Pilot Grove.

The Katy is working three switch
engines in the local yards today.

James Eisenhart, a Katy switchman, will resume work tonight, after a brief lay off.

The Katy shipped two hundred cars
of stock through this city Sunday
had about one-half that number today. About one hundred cars of the cattle were fed here.

Two hundred men, with an equal number of wagons and teams, are at work ballasting the track of the Missouri Pacific between here and Kansas City. Roadmaster J. M.
Chandler is inspecting and superintending the work.

ONE KILLED; ONE HURT

Crushed Between Engine and Car
While Mending Coupler.

Charles Russell, 30 years old, a fireman for the Missouri Pacific railroad, was instantly killed yesterday,
and Edward Kenna, 23 years, a switchman, was probably fatally injured, about 100 feet west of Twelfth street in the Mill Creek Valley yards,
says Sunday's St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The coupler on a freight car had been broken and Russell was aiding Kenna attach it to a switch engine with a chain, when another freight car was shunted from the west, crushing the two men between the locomotive and the car on which they had been working.

The injured man was badly crushed
and was removed to the Missouri Pacific hospital in a private ambulance.
Russell's body was removed to the mortuary.

Both men lived in Chicago. Russell came here about five weeks ago and Kenna had been here only a few days.

RIOTING HAS CEASED

Mob Wrecked Greek Restaurant at Roanoke, Va.

Roanoke, Va., July 15.—Roanoke is quiet again, after four hours of rioting Saturday night, when a mob
wrecked nine Greek restaurants,
three Greek shoe shine parlors and two Syrian shops.

The riot was caused by a dispute
about 5 cents between a Greek employed in the Belmont Greek restaurant on Salem avenue, and an American who went there to buy a sandwich.

Seven places were wrecked on Salem avenue, three on Jefferson street,
one on Nelson and one on Railroad avenue.

Going After State Convention.

There will be a very important meeting of the Pettis County Poultry and Pet Stock association Thursday
at 8 p. m. at the office of The Ruralist, 104 East Fifth street. The advisability of securing the state poultry show here in December will be considered.

Supt. Wray Was Here.

Dr. A. K. Wray, of Carthage, Mo., state superintendent of Congregational churches, returned home this morning, after spending Sunday with Rev.
T. R. Gray. Dr. Wray delivered two sermons at the Second Congregational church yesterday, one at the morning service and one at night.
